

SUMMERLIN ART FESTIVAL 2009
1/17/09

On behalf of The Howard Hughes Corporation, developer of Summerlin and organizer of Summerlin Arts Festival/Celebration of the Arts/La Strada d'ell Arte, I am writing to inform you that we are putting the event on a one-year hiatus.

As you are well aware, current economic challenges have dramatically changed the marketplace. However, we are hopeful the economy will regain its health in 2010 and are fully committed to resuming Summerlin Art Festival when the market is more robust and consumers have greater financial confidence.

Summerlin Art Festival has enjoyed a fabulous reputation as one of the Las Vegas Valley's premier arts events thanks to its many participants, exhibitors and supporters like you. In fact, public art and access to art and culture remains a Summerlin hallmark. Summerlin Art Festival has played an important role in not only shaping the image of our community, but in enhancing quality of life for all who live and visit here.

Again, we appreciate your past and ongoing support of Summerlin Art Festival. We hope you will consider participating again when we resume the event in 2010. In the meantime, don't hesitate to call me at (702) 791-4437 or Tamara Badik of Celebration of the Arts at (702) 255-6645, or e-mail tamara@celebrationoftheartslv.com if you have questions or concerns.
